

Sample questions for Eddie Price, author of Widder's Landing and The Little Miss Grubby Toes Series

1. As a retired history teacher – what inspired you to write your historical fiction series?
2. For those who haven't read Widder's Landing, can you tell us what the first book in the series is about?
3. How does your main character(s) play into the overall messaging behind the books?
4. How does your fascination and education in history influence your writing?
5. You have visited many countries and states. Do you plan to create or use different states or countries in your stories?
6. Who are some of your favorite authors?
7. How'd you choose the cover of the book?
8. Speaking of old time survivors, you're a reenactor. What have you reenacted?
9. You're also the author of the children's series Little Miss Grubby Toes??! Tell us about the series and when you came up with it.
10. How do you manage writing and touring?
11. Tell us about some of your historical programs?
12. Can you give us a sneak peek into your next novel?
13. Fill us in on your children's programs?
14. What are your goals as an author with your work?
15. For those who aren't Kentucky natives, give us some insight as to what would intrigue us about your programs and books?